

Richard Lockie

Director Since August 2024

Richard is a business executive based in Toronto whose career spans 45 years in corporate finance, business startups, and venture capital investments. Since 2017, he has focused on various investment opportunities, management, and operational processes related to domestic companies. He has served in several Board capacities across private and public companies.

Lockie completed a Master of Business Administration at the Richard Ivey School of Business at Western University in London, Ontario, and completed his Undergraduate Degree in Economics, also at Western.

